about me

I am originally from Hawai'i and moved to Maryland in 2002 to attend college. After starting a family, my husband and I moved to Annapolis in 2007, and I immediately fell in love with this city. Being so close to the water and the beautiful quaintness reminds me so much of home.

I ❤️ being a wife to my husband Eric and a mother to my 4 amazing children- Zakiyah, Zaira, Amari, and Jakari. They bring me so much joy, and I couldn't be more proud of them!

I am very passionate about my faith in Christ, and believe very strongly in serving others. When I am not working, I am volunteering at my church, in the school, or hanging out with my family.

Favorite Childhood Memory

I always loved going to the beach parks and having cookouts with my family and friends. So much "ono grinds!" I would love the quiet times at home helping my mom in the kitchen, or doing a crossword puzzle with my Dad.

I am excited to be at Monarch Annapolis because...

After volunteering at my children's school for 6 years, I have developed a deep passion to see every child in our community succeed. I am honored to be a part of a school that truly represents "One Annapolis" and with enthusiastic Administrators, Teachers, and Parents, we will all work together to see that goal accomplished!
