Dear Parents,
This week our students heard stories from nationally acclaimed,
Young Audiences Roster Artist Noa Baum.
More of her stories can be heard on her award winning CD recording:

Parents' Choice Recommended
Far Away and Close to Home

"An excellent collection…
The whole family will enjoy hearing all these stories several times over."
The Sacramento Bee

Israeli born storyteller Noa Baum weaves together tales from her Jewish heritage, as well as other cultures, to create this delightful collection of stories from around the world. Filled with joy and humor, these stories celebrate timeless themes such as courage, generosity and hope:

- My Grandmother's Gefilte Fish (Israel)
- Yankel and the Sabbath Fish (Eastern Europe/Jewish)
- The Lion and the Rabbit (West Africa)
- The Innkeeper's Clever daughter (Czechoslovakia)
- The Turkey and the Mayor (U.S.A.)
- The Hunchback Brothers (Russia/Jewish)
- The Girl and the Moon Man (Siberia/Chukchi)
- Treasure Under the Bridge (Poland/ Jewish)

Download these and other Noa's stories to your iPod or phone at: www.tales2go.com

---

Order Form (Please PRINT)

NAME: _____
First Last

ADDRESS: _____
Street City Zip

PHONE: _____

Please send me:
____CD @ ~~$15.00~~ $10.00 each_____
Special School discount
Shipping & handling $2.00

Total: _____

Make checks payable to:
Noa Baum
13 Devon Road

Silver Spring, MD 20910

Thank You!

www.noabaum.com ♦ 301-587-3558 ♦ storytelling@noabaum.com